Varsity Seeks Win Over Glendale Five

Tartar basketballers will travel to Glendale tomorrow night in an effort to pick up their first win after dropping their first two encounters to Huntington Beach and St. Anthony's.

Tuesday, the varsity entertained St. Anthony's here by dropping a close one to them 48 to 44. The Tartars were once 19 points behind, but woke up in the second half of the game to nearly close the gap on the visitors.

The Bees won their game by downing the visiting Bees 46 to 29.

While the two teams were playing here, Coach Rex Welch had his C and D teams playing at St. Anthony. The D team won 28 to 12 while the Cees were losing 22 to 31.

Next Tuesday, the Varsity and Bees will meet Mt. Carmel here in the high school gymnasium.

Warriors Choose All-Opponent Elevens, Long Beach Gets Nine

El Camino molesters picked an all-opponent team last week with Long Beach leading all the way. The Vikings placed nine men on the first and second teams picked by the Warriors.

Cal Poly and Santa Monica drew blanks—no one from those teams was tabbed by the Camino gridgers.

National Guardsmen Will Get 10 Days Christmas Leave

Ten days' Christmas leave is in store for most soldiers of the 40th Infantry Division. It was announced today by Maj. Gen. Daniel H. Hudelson, commanding general.

"Training operations for the 40th will be curtailed between December 23 and January 1, 1951," the general said. "However, January 2 will find an intensified training program resumed."

Warriors Upset Compton Five

Compton obliged the Warriors with their first win of the season on the hardwoods last Friday evening as the El Camino quintet handed the visitors a 65-58 upset on the Alondra court.

It was the first time an El Camino basketball team had secured a win from Compton since they started playing three years ago.
